Corporate Challenge

Are you looking for a fun walking challenge at work? Want to compete with other companies in our community? The Out of This World with Healthy Hank 8-week community challenge could be the start to a new year of healthy living and encouraging you and your co-workers to stay active!

To register your company for the WWH Corporate Challenge, please complete and email or send the information below. Please note that in addition to the company registration, each staff member still needs to register. There is a $8 registration fee.

Register Your Company Now!

Steps are submitted by each individual person at our website each week. Be sure staff know to pick their team name in the drop-down menu when prompted. The average # of staff steps taken by your company and other businesses each week will be recorded.

The company with the most cumulative steps average over 8 weeks will receive the coveted WWH Corporate Challenge Plaque and a Pizza Party courtesy of the WWH Eatery!

Each company is responsible for creating their own internal challenge but as steps are submitted each week, WWH will keep track of average steps per company and will send a weekly email with standings.

My Company will be participating in the WWH Corporate Challenge (multiple companies).

Company: _____ Contact Person: _____

Phone Number: _____ Email Address: _____

Team Name: _____

Anticipated number of staff participants (minimum of 5 required): _____

If registering online for the WWH Corporate Challenge, please enter your company name when prompted. Please be sure your staff record their steps each week at wwhealth.org.

Please email or drop off/mail completed corporate challenge registration form to:
